Dear Friend of Fellowship Tract League,

"Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour." Isaiah 43:10-11

This month has had its fair share of trials. Our plate maker was down for about two weeks, and our forklift remains non-operational until a replacement part arrives and the company can service it. These setbacks have delayed the shipment of our Papua New Guinea container. Thankfully, the plate maker is back up and running, and our press has been operating very well over the last couple of weeks. We also have a scheduled date for the installation of our new cutter during the week of October 26.

Despite these challenges, we are grateful for the opportunity to remain faithful to what God has called us to do at the Fellowship Tract League. It is an honor to serve the Lord through this ministry. As I think about that privilege, this passage comes to mind and reminds me of the responsibility and blessing we have in sharing the Gospel.

A witness is someone who testifies of what they have seen or experienced. What a wonderful thought, that we have personally experienced God's salvation and can serve as witnesses for the Lord. Even beyond that, we have the privilege of being His servants!

Let us continue to pray for and desire to see the Gospel sent throughout the world, so that others may know that there is no Saviour besides the Lord.

Thank you for partnering with us,

Jon Brown, Director
Fellowship Tract League
